

Social Science Students' Council International Engagement Award

Description

The Social Science Students' Council (SSSC) International Engagement Award is an annual award granted to ten Western University Undergraduate Students enrolled in the Social Science Faculty. The award is intended to provide financial aid to students seeking a global engagement that would benefit their undergraduate career in Social Science. This award has particular interest in academic engagements granting students an academic credit. The Social Science Student Donation Fund proudly funds this award.

Each applicant can be awarded up to $1,000 for an International Engagement organized through Western. Students can only receive one SSSC International Engagement Award throughout their undergraduate career. Please note the eligibility breakdown below:

- 3rd or 4th year student enrolled in the Social Science Faculty
- Minimum 70% cumulative average
- Priority to Western Academic Engagements and Western Extra Curricular Activities/ Unpaid Internship (Note: Must be sponsored and run through Western University)
- Must have paid into the Social Science Student Donation Fund, and not have opted out.
- Students already granted this award in the past will NOT be eligible
